

Active Shooter Training for Houses of Worship

Houses of worship are places of spiritual growth, friendship and safety. However, maintaining a safe environment while cultivating a welcoming atmosphere can present unique challenges.

Congregation and faith leaders are invited to attend a briefing on tools and strategies to help ensure the safety of their congregations in an active shooter situation: please no more than three representatives per congregation.

The Jewish Federation
OF THE SACRAMENTO REGION

Kennedy Learning Center

Robert T. Matsui Federal Courthouse
501 I Street | Sacramento, CA. 95814
December 11, 2018 | 9:30AM - 12:00PM

REGISTER HERE: <https://usaocaetraining.org/ActiveShooter>
Please no more than three representatives per congregation.

Pre-registration is required, and seating is limited.
Deadline to register: December 3, 2018.
Please note that your registration is not complete until you have received a confirmation email.
Please arrive 30 minutes early to allow time to find parking and clear security.

Brought to you in partnership by the:
Federal Bureau of Investigation
United States Attorney's Office
Jewish Federation of the Sacramento Region
Interfaith Council of Greater Sacramento
Sacramento Police Department
Sacramento County Sheriff's Department
Sacramento District Attorney's Office

Questions - contact Sean Vassar: (916) 554-2907 or Katie Burnett : (916) 746-2780