

BUILD FOR UNITY “UNITY THINK TANK”

February 27, 2019 at 6:30 pm
3600 Riverside Blvd, Sacramento 95818

It Takes a Community to Build a Community

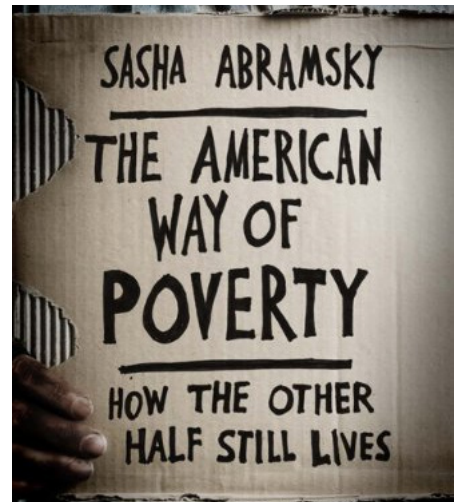

Join Habitat for Humanity of Greater Sacramento, our Build for Unity Faith Partner Coalition, Congregation B’nai Israel, and author Sasha Abramsky for an evening of discussion on housing inequality. Learn about the Jewish holiday purim and its call to social action, and enjoy traditional Jewish pastries and refreshments.

Sasha Abramsky, a freelance journalist, will discuss a moral society’s obligation to address issues of inequality, including the problem of inadequate housing.

Abramsky is the author of The American Way of Poverty: How the Other Half Still Lives (2013), among other books. His work has appeared in publications such as The Nation and The Atlantic Monthly, as well as an occasional op-ed column in the Sacramento Bee. Abramsky is a lecturer at UC Davis in the university’s Writing Program.

Wednesday, February 27th | Refreshments at 6:30, Program at 7:00
Congregation B’nai Israel at 3600 Riverside Blvd

This event is free to attend and is raising support and awareness for the Habitat for Humanity Build for Unity project.
